ATM/Everyday Debit Card Overdraft Decision Notice

What You Need to Know about Overdrafts and Overdraft Fees

An overdraft occurs when you do not have enough money in your account to cover a transaction, but New Generations pays it anyway. New Generations can cover your overdrafts in two different ways:

1. New Generations has an Overdraft Review process that comes with your account.
2. New Generations offers overdraft protection options, such as a link to a New Generations savings account, which may be less expensive than our Overdraft Privilege process. To learn more, ask us about these plans.

This notice explains New Generations' Overdraft Review process for ATM withdrawals and debit card transactions.

What is the Overdraft Privilege program that comes with my account?

New Generations does authorize and pay overdrafts for the following types of transactions:

- Checks and other transactions made using your checking account number
- Automatic bill payments

New Generations does not authorize and pay overdrafts for the following types of transactions unless you ask us to (see below):

- ATM transactions
- Everyday debit card transactions (also known as one-time debit card transactions).

New Generations pays overdrafts at our discretion, which means we do not guarantee that we will always authorize and pay any type of transaction.

If we do not authorize and pay an overdraft, your transaction will be declined.

What fees will I be charged if New Generations pays my overdraft?

Under New Generations' Overdraft Review process:

- New Generations will charge you a fee of $37 each time we pay an overdraft on your behalf.
- There is no limit on the total fees we can charge you for overdrawing your account.

What if I want New Generations FCU to authorize and pay overdrafts on my ATM and everyday debit card transactions?
